

Paris High School is excited to announce the selection of Aaron Speakes as the girls' basketball coach. Mr. Speakes has served as the Paris girls' middle school head coach, assistant for Coach Cary Barr, assistant to Coach Terence Brooks, and as an AAU coach for the Central Kentucky Storm. He is a 1993 graduate of Paris High School and earned his Bachelor's degree from the University of Kentucky. Coach Speakes has been married to his wonderful wife Stacey for 14 years and they have two daughters who attend Paris Middle School. Mr. Speakes is employed with the Department of Defense and Homeland Security. His goal as Paris' coach is to "not only teach basketball, but to teach life lessons that can be learned and applied while playing the game of basketball".
